

DOMAIN NAME REGISTRATION

A domain name is the address that is called upon by users when trying to access your web site. Usually, your domain name is your, or a variation of your, organization name.

Organization: _____

Description: _____

Contact Name: _____

Title: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ - _____ - _____

Fax: _____ - _____ - _____

DOMAIN NAME Please print clearly. Fill in what you would like your domain to be, AS WELL as the extension. Since it is possible that your domain may not be available, place the order of preference in the boxes under the # heading (see example). If your first choice is not available, your second choice will be the next attempt to be registered, and so on. All domain names registered by the HWCN will list the HWCN as the contact info in a query. All domain names registered by the HWCN will be monitored by the HWCN until the proper procedure to release the domain is taken by the owner of the domain. Domain names registered by another individual, but hosted by the HWCN, are NOT the responsibility of the HWCN.

You have the following choices for domain name extensions:
.ca	.on.ca	<city>.on.ca i.e. hamilton.on.ca	.com	.net	.org

Example	#	Domain Name	Extension
	1	www	yourorganizationname	on.ca
